BT v Halesworth Golf Club

Date: 6th August 2009
Venue: Halesworth Golf Club
Format: 4BBB Hambro scoring

The night before the match: Halesworth had a full team of eight, and we still only had seven. In desperation I called in my brother-in-law. But fate can be strange, for Halesworth had three call offs on the actual day of the match – one of them was their Captain of the Day, but they managed to find one more player, ending up two short!

The wait, in case any one was late in turning up, meant that we couldn't lend Halesworth a player, so Halesworth gallantly played two singles versus our pairs.

The weather was great for golf, although Stuart and I couldn't get into the correct rhythm – we both played badly at the same time – unlike Bob Judd (former HGC Club Captain) whom gave us a sound thrashing by four holes. The rest of our team fared far better, especially the John and Richard, whom won by six points. The net result was our first victory at Halesworth for several years, with a win of 10-12.

After the match we enjoyed a delicious two-course meal and coffee in the comfort of the spikes bar.

All in all: good golf, good company, good food and a good win. Next year HGC vow to field a 10-stong team, so be prepared for a great contest!
