BT v Halesworth Golf Club

Date: 5th August 2010
Venue: Halesworth Golf Club
Format: 4BBB Hambro scoring

The teams of 10 players teed off in sunlight for a great evening's golf in this annual competition for the Baumbach Trophy. I confess to being nervous about the outcome for I knew that Halesworth was fielding a full team and we only scraped a one point win last year when opposition were low in number.

The weather was good for golf, the course was at its best to date, and our BTRGS pairs played very well indeed. My game was close, and we won by one point; thanks largely to my partner, Rahul, whom was in fine form – such was his accuracy that he could strike a very firm chip from off the green to hit the flag and drop straight into the hole!

Carl and Jon came in with a magnificent win by five points and, perhaps, the highlight of the match: on the longest par three hole of the course, Jon struck a wonderful shot 185 yards straight over the bunker onto the green and into the cup for a hole-in-one, and this was with an eight iron! (To compare, I was in the bunker with a five-iron!).

As the light faded into the gloaming, our last pair returned and the overall result was a BTRGS victory by four points!

After the match the socialising continued and we enjoyed a delicious lasagne and coffee in the comfort of the spikes bar.

My thanks to our hosts and all those in the BTRGS team.
